Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Union of Arab Historians, Society of Yemeni Historians and Archeologists and Yemeni Writers Union - Sana'a

Sana'a, Al-Thawra Newspaper, issue No.8910, 9/4/1989

Death Announcement, Yemeni Historian Sultan Nagi in God's Protection*

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Association of Arab Historian, Society of Yemeni Historians and Archeologists and the Yemeni Writers Union announced the death of historian, Sultan Nagi who died while he was pursuing his mission in the British capital, London, last Thursday corresponding to thirtieth of Shaban Hegira month in 1409 A. H., sixth of April 1989 A. D. at age approaching fifty in the wake of acute internal bleeding.

Mr. Sultan Nagi was one of brightest Yemeni researchers and historians; he outstandingly participated to establish the grounds of the serious research in the field of the Yemeni history and had well-known compilations and many researches.

Besides, he occupied many of important positions in both parts of homeland; the last one was a consultant in Ministry of Foreign Affair in Sana'a.

May God encompass the deceased with His Grace, and lodge him His wide Paradise, inspire his family and lovers patience and solace. To Allah we belong and to Him is our return.

However, his corpse will be escorted from mosque of Ishaq to his last hour in Khwzaima cemetery following prayer of noon of Tuesday Ramadan (Hegira month) 5, corresponding to April 11, 1989.

.....

* The same Death Announcement published later on 26th September Newspaper, issue No.339, 13/4/1989.

PAULT IN AN AND AND THE PAUL