Condolence

Colonel Ali Abdulla Saleh, the President of the Republic, the Commander in Chief of the Armed Forces, Secretary-General of the General People's Conference sent a cable of condolences and consolation to children and family of the deceased, the Yemeni Historian Sultan Nagi, as follows:

Brother, Ma'aen Sultan Nagi,

With deep regret, we received announcement of death of Sultan Nagi. By his death, Yemen lost an outstanding historian and researcher who enriched the Yemeni thought, and left clear impressions in achieving and presentation of the glory of Yemeni History.

We send to you and all members of the family of deceased sincere condolences and true consolation, asking God to encompass him with His Grace and lodge him in the spacious paradise, and inspire you patience. To Allah we belong and to Him is our return.
