

Riyadh Shamsan

Journalist

Sana'a, Al-Thawra Newspaper, issue No. 8915, 14/4/1989

Review of Life and Works of Yemeni Historian Deceased, Sultan Nagi *

In a solemn funeral procession, Yemen laid to rest yesterday, Tuesday, the outstanding Yemeni historian, Sultan Nagi to his final resting home. In the funeral, a number of ministers, members of consultative council, officials, writers, artists and large group of friends, and his companions and a crowd of people participated.

Mr. Sultan Nagi was one of remarkable Yemeni researchers and historians that he notably participated to lay the grounds of the serious research in the field of Yemeni history.

In the following, Al-Thawra Newspaper performs single handedly to publish information about the life and works of the late who left resource of Yemeni history. May God encompass him with His Grace, and inspire his family patience and solac.

* Extracted from article. (for more details about his life and works, see list of works and the biography).

