

14 October Newspaper

Aden, 14 October Newspaper, Nov.1983

Yemeni Historian Sultan Nagi Participates in Session of Arab Unity Studies Centre *

In the few next days, the well-known Yemeni historian, Mr. Sultan Nagi will go to Cyprus responding to a call received from the Center for Arab Unity Studies to attend the session that will be held by the centre in the period from November 26 to the next December 2, which will concentrate its works for issue on the crisis of democracy in the Arab Homeland.

It is worth mentioning that many thinkers, politicians, and reporters will participate in this session.

* In spite of all communications on all high levels, this session held in Limasul in Cyprus during the period from November 26 - 30, 1983, after being impossible to be held in any Arab country. Over eighty Arab researchers, intellectuals and politicians participated. The center adhered to call all various intellectual associations in this session. The center has published researches and dialogues in the session in the Centre's Review. (For more details, see the Arab Future, issue No. 62, April 1984).

